

ADVENTURE SPORTS TRAINING CENTER, ANJANERI

Adventure Sports Training Centre at Anjaneri is the first ever Adventure Sports Institute in Maharashtra. This is an initiative by Directorate of Tourism (DoT), Govt. of Maharashtra and operated by CHMES's Bhonsala Institute of Adventure Sports (BIAS). The objective of this Establishment is to provide adventure sports training, promote adventure sports amongst the aspiring youth and establish a safe & responsible practice of adventure sports and tourism.

DIRECTORATE OF TOURISM, (DoT)

DoT is a body of the Govt. of Maharashtra dedicated to expanding tourism in the state. DoT not only develops and maintains various tourist locations in the state, but also offers heritage walks, adventure activities, aquatic sports and attractive tour packages.

BHONSALA INSTITUTE OF ADVENTURE SPORTS (BIAS)

Bhonsala is known to be the pioneering organization in imparting "Military Training to Students" over the past 88 years. It is believed that adventure sports, especially mountaineering, is the closest combat sport to military combat. Over the past 28 years, the organization has offered to experience this thrill of adventure sports to more than 30,000 enthusiasts of all age groups by conducting various treks, camps and expeditions on land, water & sky.

Bhonsala Institute of Adventure Sports (BIAS) has been entrusted with the responsibility to efficiently operate Adventure Sports Training Center, Anjaneri. BIAS will also focus towards empowerment of the rural youth by extending dedicated certification courses in the field of Adventure Sports. The trained individuals will be able to contribute in promoting safe & responsible practice of adventure tourism in multiple ways such as fort guide, trekking & nature guide, waterfall guide etc.

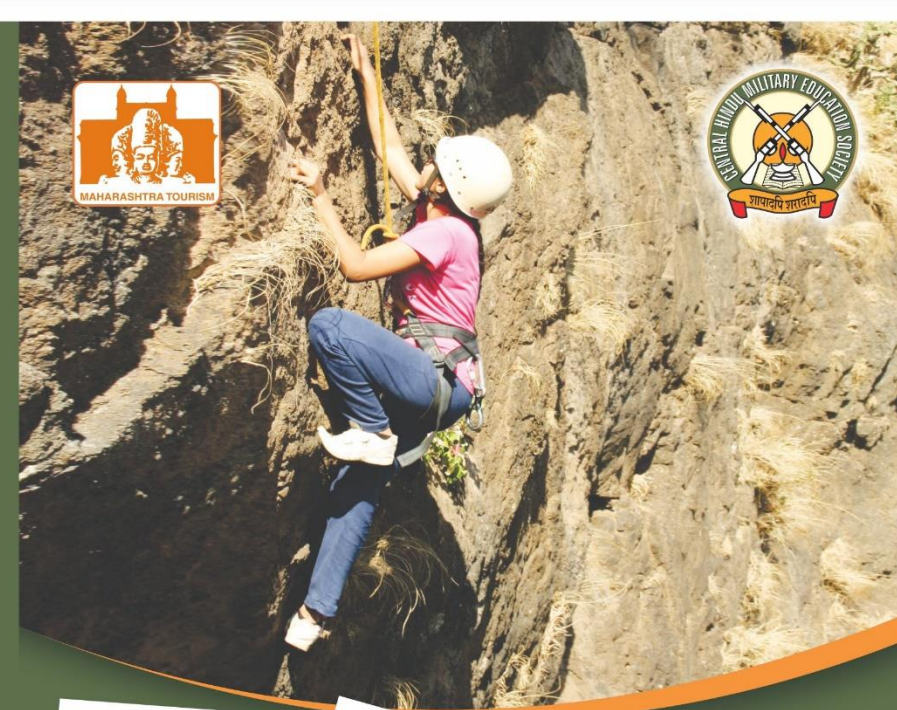

Mission: The institute aims to promote adventure sports, martial spirit, physical fitness, skill development, leadership training and personality development.

Facilities: BIAS has established state-of-the art infrastructure including dormitory, dining area with dedicated kitchen, training hall, camping ground and support vehicles along with standard equipment required for land, water & air adventure sports courses.

Courses offered: BIAS offers a range of Certification courses which includes,

Rock Climbing	Wilderness Survival	Trekking	Navigation
Nature Learning	Outbound Management	Rafting	Kayaking
Sailing	Scuba Diving	Parasailing	Paragliding

Additionally, the institute will organize workshops, seminars, nature trails & adventure camps for students and enthusiasts.
